COLLECTIVE ACTION UNDER 29 U.S.C. § 216(b)

ECF Case

-----X

Plaintiff Raul Gonzalez Lopez (“Plaintiff Gonzalez” or “Mr. Gonzalez”), individually and on behalf of others similarly situated, by and through his attorneys, Michael Faillace & Associates, P.C., upon his knowledge and belief, and as against V L Delights LLC (a.k.a. V L Deights LLC, d/b/a Bel Ami Cafe), (“Defendant Corporation”), Vanessa Laplaud and Claudio Doe, (“Individual Defendants”), (collectively, “Defendants”), alleges as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiff Gonzalez is a former employee of Defendants V L Delights LLC (a.k.a. V L Deights LLC, d/b/a Bel Ami Cafe), Vanessa Laplaud, and Claudio Doe.
2. Defendants own, operate, or control a French cafe, located at 30 East 68th Street, New York, New York 10065 under the name “Bel Ami Cafe”.

3. Upon information and belief, individual Defendants Vanessa Laplaud and Claudio Doe, serve or served as owners, managers, principals, or agents of Defendant Corporation and, through this corporate entity, operate or operated the cafe as a joint or unified enterprise.

4. Plaintiff Gonzalez was employed as a food preparer and a dishwasher at the cafe located at 30 East 68th Street, New York, New York 10065.

5. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiff Gonzalez worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate minimum wage, overtime, and spread of hours compensation for the hours that he worked.

6. Rather, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff Gonzalez appropriately for any hours worked either at the straight rate of pay or for any additional overtime premium.

7. Further, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff Gonzalez the required “spread of hours” pay for any day in which he had to work over 10 hours a day.

8. Defendants’ conduct extended beyond Plaintiff Gonzalez to all other similarly situated employees.

9. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Gonzalez and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the minimum wage and overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

10. Plaintiff Gonzalez now brings this action on behalf of himself, and other similarly situated individuals, for unpaid minimum and overtime wages pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. (“FLSA”), and for violations of the N.Y. Labor Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the “NYLL”), and the “spread of hours” and overtime wage orders of the New York Commissioner of Labor codified at N.Y. COMP. CODES R. & REGS. tit. 12, § 146-1.6 (herein the “Spread of Hours Wage Order”), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys’ fees and costs.

11. Plaintiff Gonzalez seeks certification of this action as a collective action on behalf of himself, individually, and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of Defendants pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) and the FLSA, and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff Gonzalez’s state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

13. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because all, or a substantial portion of, the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district, Defendants maintain their corporate headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate a French cafe located in this district. Further, Plaintiff Gonzalez was employed by Defendants in this district.

At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Gonzalez (and all similarly situated employees) to work in excess of 40 hours a week without paying him appropriate minimum wage, spread of hours pay, and overtime compensation as required by federal and state laws.

53. Plaintiff Gonzalez was a victim of Defendants' common policy and practices which violate his rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by, inter alia, not paying him the wages he was owed for the hours he worked.

54. Defendants' pay practices resulted in Plaintiff Gonzalez not receiving payment for all his hours worked, and resulted in Plaintiff Gonzalez's effective rate of pay falling below the required minimum wage rate.

55. Defendants habitually required Plaintiff Gonzalez to work additional hours beyond his regular shifts but did not provide him with any additional compensation.

56. Defendants paid Plaintiff Gonzalez his wages in a combination of direct deposit and cash.

58. Defendants failed to post at the workplace, or otherwise provide to employees, the required postings or notices to employees regarding the applicable wage and hour requirements of the FLSA and NYLL.

59. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants were done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiff Gonzalez (and similarly situated individuals) worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiff Gonzalez properly for his full hours worked.

60. Defendants engaged in their unlawful conduct pursuant to a corporate policy of minimizing labor costs and denying employees compensation by knowingly violating the FLSA and NYLL.

61. Defendants' unlawful conduct was intentional, willful, in bad faith, and caused significant damages to Plaintiff Gonzalez and other similarly situated former workers.

62. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Gonzalez and other employees with accurate wage statements at the time of their payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

63. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Gonzalez and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before February 1 of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employees' primary language, containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any “doing business as” names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer’s main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).
